Please Note: The Oregon Invasive Species Council now uses Microsoft Teams as our virtual meeting platform. Only Oregon Invasive Species Council members and invited guests will have microphone and video access during the meeting. Members of the public who wish to give public comment will be granted video/microphone access at the appropriate time. Members of the public are encouraged to submit written comments and/or sign up for public comment in advance of meetings to ensure that the Council is able to consider them before making decisions and so that the Council can reserve adequate time. Please send an email to coordinator@oregoninvasivespeciescouncil.org to do so in advance of the meeting. During the meeting, attendees may also submit questions via the chat/questions box or request to participate during the public comment section of the agenda.

Additional meeting materials not bundled with the agenda because of their large size will be found on the OISC website at: <https://www.oregoninvasivespeciescouncil.org/meetings>
